JOINT SCHEDULING ORDER

Pursuant to the Court's January 10, 2017, Order (Docket #20), the parties to the above-captioned action have met and conferred regarding scheduling and jointly submit the attached proposed scheduling order to address the immediate next steps in the litigation. As required by the order, the parties have also met and conferred regarding Rule 26(f) issues, including those identified in the Court's Sample Outline for a Rule 26(f) Plan and Status Report. Given the early stage of the litigation and plaintiff's intent to file an amended complaint, the parties submit that it may be premature to address many of the issues set out in the sample outline. Of course, if the Court did anticipate the filing of a formal Rule 26(f) report, the parties will do so promptly and will be prepared to discuss the issues at the Scheduling Conference set for February 7, 2017. The parties jointly submit the attached proposed order providing a schedule for plaintiff's filing of his amended complaint and defendants' response thereto.
